For Advertisers.—The Vermont Daily Transcript has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and in that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at errand's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

THE JUDICIAL.—Boys, let us rejoice, and demonstrate also. St. Albans, scene of the Rebel raid from Canada, has now an opportunity to speak, and loudly she speaks for Grant, Colfax and our country. Heard you those 100 guns on the park this afternoon? Did you notice the Stars and Stripes as they floated proudly over St. Albans to-day? These things mean something, Grant is elected, triumphantly elected, 201 votes for Grant out of 248 electoral votes. At the end is not yet. One hundred additional guns will be fired at 8 p. m. from the "battery." Those Napoleon guns which the raid made necessary will speak again; hear their story. A large quantity of fire balls and rockets will illuminate the night from the park. The St. Albans Brigade Band will discourse patriotic music and quickstep airs to fight. Give us "Rally Round the Flag, boys." We also hear it mentioned that a goodly number will take supper with Hiram at the American House during the evening. The house in our festivities should be remembered. The doors were freely thrown wide open last night to a large crowd; let us remember. Above all, let us rejoice over the greatest political victory won in modern times. Grant and Colfax now and forever, the Union one and inseparable.

The Result.

Our telegraphic despatches tell the whole story. Grant and Colfax are triumphantly elected by a large popular majority. New York is doubtful, but even if it has gone against the Republicans the result is not changed. It is a satisfaction to know, as much as we desire the electoral vote of New York and the election of the gallant Griswold, that Grant is elected without the aid of the Empire State, which has, in times past, so often decided Presidential Elections. Read our despatches and see if there is not good cause for rejoicing on the part of loyal, liberty-loving men.

ALL WRONG.—While we think the Republicans of St. Albans, both old and young, had just cause to be joyful over the election returns last night, we cannot too severely denounce the indiscriminate 'plunder of material from fences, stores, &c., wherewith to kindle a bonfire on the Park; and especially censurable was the attempt to set fire to a large pile of boards belonging to the Hon. Victor Atwood, living on the West side of the Park. The fire we are glad to announce was discovered and put out before any damage was done. We do not think the parties who set the fire harbor any ill-feeling against Mr. Atwood, but in the midst of their rejoicing they overlooked the very important fact that they were destroying valuable property. Whenever a bonfire is contemplated the parties getting it up should purchase the material with which to kindle it; and had the hat been passed around last night there would have been no difficulty in raising sufficient funds for a bonfire, without resorting to the "lifting" process.

THE REJOICINGS.—No event has transpired since the fall of Richmond and the recapitulation of the Confederate Army to Gen. Grant at Appomattox, which has occasioned the rejoicings in St. Albans that are being manifested over our recent victories. The Republican headquarters, for the receipt of despatches, was established last night at the American House, and large crowds of jubilant Republicans gave vent to their pent up feelings as the despatches, from time to time, were announced. The meeting partook of the nature of a gathering of "free lovers" and every Republican, consequently, was happy. There was naught to mar the feast of intelligence, save the doubtful condition of New York, which, we hope, may yet be brought into the fold of her sister loyal States, by further reports.

SILVER SPOONS.—The announcement by telegraph last night, of the election of Ben. Butler, created the wildest enthusiasm. The vile abuse which has been heaped upon him by the "hot air" Democrats has resulted in his re-election by an overwhelming majority. The name is a terror to the unrepentant rebels everywhere.

OBITUARY.—Dr. Aaron Smith, of Montpelier, died on the evening of the 2nd inst., after a brief illness, of Pneumonia, aged 82. He was born in Hanover, N. H., and moved into Montpelier in 1805 from Hardwick, where he had practiced in his profession since 1811. The Journal says: "Dr. Smith was one of the most intelligent and accomplished physicians of the State during the long period of his active practice. None who knew him, or engaged the benefit of his professional services, but will remember his assiduity, his skill, and his vigorous and successful treatment. He always won the confidence and affection of his patients, for he added to his medical experience and knowledge the most unqualified sympathy and faithfulness to his trust. He was generous and considerate to the poor, and so, with an extensive practice, he amassed but little property." His funeral took place this (Wednesday) morning at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Hulda Kidder, of Irasburgh, died suddenly at Charleston on the 28th ult. She was visiting her relatives, and was in her usual health, when she was observed to be sinking, was helped to a bed, and died in a short time. Her death was probably occasioned by a poplexy.

HISTORY OF DERBY.—B. F. D. Carpenter, of Charleston, is writing a history of Derby for the Vermont Historical Magazine; in connection with which Hon. B. H. Steele will furnish a memoir of Benjamin Hinman, one of the early and prominent settlers.

SKUNKS.—The Lamotte Newsdealer has an article on skunks. Among other stories it tells the following: When Sheriff Dwinell went the other night to rouse Bro. Small to get a warrant to apprehend the counterfeiters, he saw one of these pretty creatures on Small's door step, and supposing it to be an animal of the feline species, he went to "poor pussy" it, in a very sympathetic manner, and received in return for his kindness a most gushing greeting. We leave the rest for the imagination of the reader. However, the story has its moral: Do not caress your neighbor's cats in the dark.

ONE of the excellent physicians of Burlington driving into town this morning, was met by a friend, who hailed him with the question if he had voted. "Not yet," said the doctor; "but I have been out all night after a voter. I got him too."

"When will he vote?"

"Oh, about twenty-one years from now."

"Ah—I see. Not bad. Well, look after him, doctor, and see that he votes right."

"No fear. He can't go wrong with the name he's got. His father is a democrat, but when I told him he had got a boy, and asked him what he would name him, he said: 'Ulysses Grant, by thunder.' So he'll do."—Free Press.

News and Miscellaneous Items.

California is to have a dog-trot.

The Grecian bend is still bending.

San Joaquin, Cal., is to have a baby-show.

Paris ladies go out sporting with dog and gun. One was caught without a license the other day and fined.

The New York Mail knows of a wedding to come off shortly at which 24 bridesmaids and groomsmen will assist.

After a recent execution at Mason, Ga., the hangman's rope was eagerly cut up into pieces by the spectators, to be used as charms.

Knotted silk finge has taken the place of lace to a great extent in the trimming of rich silk, satin, and roplin dresses, and is very effective, though less rich and not so permanently valuable. It is principally used upon the waist and sleeves, the train giving sufficient style to the skirt, especially if the material be costly.

The residents of the west side of New York city are having built for them on Forty-eighth Street, extending from Broadway to Seventh Avenue, a market larger in area than Fulton or Jefferson. It is being fitted up in splendid style, and is to be run only by first-class butchers.

The big diamond in the end of Ole Bull's violin bow was a present from the Duke of Devonshire, a deaf old gentleman, for whose pleasure the violinist played half an hour with a string connecting the instrument with his hearer's teeth, whereby the latter heard the music.

A woman in Vienna is realizing a fortune by means of trained goldfinches that draw numbers from a small bowl. Policy and lottery players attach great prestige to this humbug, and pay fabulous prices for the numbers.

A woman was lately, by mistake, shut in the vaults of a small village church in Sweden, where she remained 11 days. When found she merely asked for some water, and, being treated with great care, perfectly recovered in a few days.

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot of Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons. dtf-94.

PROGRESS.—Columbus sailed to the American coast in a four hundred ton ship, and first landed upon the island of St. Domingo. Last week a vessel from St. Domingo unloaded in New York over four hundred tons of St. Croix Rum for P. H. Drake & Co., of that city. That is but a few weeks' supply of this article, which these gentlemen use in the manufacture of the celebrated Plantation Bitters. We are informed by an exchange that Messrs. Drake & Co., have not advertised a dollar for a year, but that the sales of this article continue at the former enormous figure. In 1864, the receipts of the Plantation Bitters were equal to those of New York & New Haven Railroad.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

A celebrated chemist says: "I consider, after a careful comparison and analysis 'Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative' by far the best hair preparation in the market. It is the only one I can fully endorse."—Boston Journal. d&w

Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil is recommended to use both externally and internally, a id if used faithfully according to the directions on each bottle, it cures pain "like a charm," and when once used by any person, it has a new friend to praise its good virtues. The best price is to try a bottle. d&w.

THE AMERICAN COOKING STOVE.—Having been so eminently successful at the New York State Fairs for the past six years having been brought in competition with all the best stoves in the country, and having each and every year taken the first premium, and some years two, and having gained a world-wide reputation, and a record of which any one may be justly proud, we would now announce for the consolation of those who have so signally and repeatedly failed in competing with it, and have been so sorely chagrined at their numerous and repeated defeats, that this stove is not entered at this fair for a premium, as premiums have ceased to be of any account; but it is entered only for exhibition, that its thousands of friends and admirers may have the opportunity of examining its various improvements.
